Subject: Update Company Details

Dear Valued Customer,

I am pleased to advise, as of the 9th December 2024, McCloskey Equipment Limited has now been acquired by Agg-Pro Ltd.

A Little Bit About Us

Agg-Pro specialize in the distribution and support of machinery to the aggregate, processing and recycling sectors, this acquisition will expand our reach across South England and Scotland, making us the exclusive McCloskey dealer in Great-Britain.

This strategic move enhances Agg-Pro's ability to serve customers with comprehensive sales and support for McCloskey products enhancing our capacity to provide excellent service to a wider audience, our combined expertise will strengthen Agg-Pro's position in the UK market and create new opportunities for growth.

Agg-Pro's HQ is centrally located in the Midlands, we were founded in 1996 to provide a personal, customer focused approach and we are on hand to offer our vast experience and knowledge to ensure you select and maintain the most efficient machine for the job.

Whilst the company has grown substantially since formation, our core values persist today with many long-standing, dedicated employees who are passionate about the service they provide.

As an established, exclusive dealer of McCloskey, we also represent other market leading brands including GIPO, Jonsson, Tesab, Lippmann, McCloskey Environmental and MWS.

We stock an extensive range of spare parts, with on-site skilled engineers, as well as dedicated spare parts, after-sales and service teams operating from both our Tamworth (HQ) and Didcot locations.
